THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER MAINTAINS ITS INFLUENCE

- How often a successful executive, far from his small-town birthplace — maintains his contacts through regular receipt of his weekly newspaper.
- There is nothing quite like a small town weekly for neighborly news and intimate contacts.
- People in the advertising business talk about selected audiences — sharply focused circulation. They have learned from experience that when a publication is specially edited to appeal to the specific interests of a smaller group of people, its opportunities to make sales are multiplied many times over.
- The weekly newspaper is that kind of publication. Whether its circulation is a few hundred or a few thousand, it represents effective circulation.
- Gather the towns-people and farm folk around you when you advertise. Surround yourself with friendly neighbors — deliver your advertising message through your local weekly newspaper.

58.2 Per Cent of Canada's population live in places of 10,000 or less. THESE ARE WEEKLY NEWSPAPER MARKETS.

Ramblin' and Roamin'

Just For The Record . . .

Our new roads have had only a short trial test and so far very little has been said against them when our hearing aid was tuned in. The few derogatory comments came mostly from a wee town we visited last week a few miles north of here. After slowing down for the bumpy roads and trying to see through the dust of that town (the road had been "watered" a few minutes earlier) we came to the conclusion there might be just a spot of jealousy attached to the remarks directed our way. Machines are always available for this type of work — however a little initiative and money are needed to start the wheels turning. Wonder which they lack — one or both?

Hope We're Not Speaking Too Soon . . .

But prospects of a bumper crop in this area look very promising as this piece is written. So far all sections within our reading range have escaped serious hail damage and fields are ripening by the minute. We certainly hope our thoughts don't put the "double whammy" on the present state of affairs. After the past few bad seasons in this area it's time for the pendulum to swing our way.

And A Friendly Nod To . . .

To the two local service clubs who, blessed by fine weather, dished up an interesting day of entertainment at the annual jamboree last week. Co-operation of this sort is what will make the show a bigger success each time around. 'Twas lots of work for many of the members but those that did their share were paid off in spades with the knowledge that their end of the deal was under control at all times.

A Word From The Wise . . .

When I hear people say that they don't believe in the existence of the Supreme Being, I can't help thinking of the guy who said: "I'm an atheist, thank God."

Local Girl Wins Contest

Following is a copy of the essay-winning entry written by Pamela Brooks, who last year was a grade six student at the Didsbury school. Mrs. H. Youngs was her teacher. It has to do with the safety of the province, sponsored by the Alberta Safety Council for all schools in the Olds School Division, as well as other divisions throughout the province.

TRACTOR SAFETY

"If only I had taken my wife's advice," said John, sadly remembering his son's death because of his own carelessness.

It all happened one day when John was stuck in his own yard with his tractor.

"Why don't you get Bob Jones to pull you out?" suggested his wife. "He has a big tractor."

"Haven't got time," grumbled John. "I'll do it myself."

John found a pole and placed it ahead of the back wheels. He got on the tractor and started it with a jerk so as to get over the pole more easily. Apparently no one had ever told John how dangerous it was to put an obstacle ahead of the back wheels.

As the tractor was going back and forth to get over the pole, Tommy, his son, came running out. "Daddy," he called, "the . . ."

That was all John heard for just then the tractor reared up and fell over backwards with a mighty crash. Tommy was pinned beneath it and was killed instantly. John leaped to safety just in time.

Besides costing a great deal of money to repair the tractor it took the life of his only son. Which would be better, taking time to be pulled out or losing your son?

Notes From D.A.

By Murray Wilde

When considering an outlet for the forage produced under a good crop rotation type of farming in this area, there are a lot of good reasons in favor of a sheep enterprise — especially if you are unable to obtain a milk contract or are not willing to be tied down with a dairy herd.

More income per acre can be produced from sheep than from beef cows because sheep produce a crop of wool besides a crop of meat. The investment required is not too great, especially if five-year-old range ewes are purchased in the fall and used for a couple of lamb crops as a starter.

As far as shelter is concerned it depends when you wish to do your lambing — if done in winter a good shed will be needed whereas if lambing is scheduled for late spring you can get by with very little shelter.

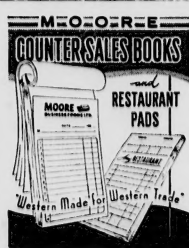

Sheep are easy to handle and require little attention except at lambing time.

Probably the most outstanding reason in favor of sheep is that there is no surplus in Canada. In fact, last year Canada imported 15,000,000 pounds of lamb and 80 per cent of her wool requirements.

The market is relatively more stable with fewer and less violent fluctuations that are characteristic of the beef and pork trades.

According to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics semi-annual hog survey, June 1st, the swine population in Canada was 36 per cent larger in the west and 27 per cent larger in the whole of Canada. The sow farrowing intensity from June to August show an increase of 56 per cent. With that in mind and considering that the feed grain surplus will probably be with us for some time to come it is a little hard to see where there is any room for more hog production.

If you would sit down and do a little figuring you will realize that you can make more money in a shorter time per dollar invested in sheep than is possible in most farm livestock enterprises.

Outdoor Cooking - With A Zest!

I hope there are going to be some picnics in your August plans, because I have a brand new idea for you to try; an all-in-one meal roasted in aluminum foil in the open fire. It's easy to prepare and will add new interest to August picnics.

Prepare At Home:-

For a foil cooked meal season
hamburger with salt and pepper,
add chopped green pepper, celery or onion as you wish. Take it to the picnic along with raw peeled carrots, potatoes, onions, corn
on the cob. Take along, too, a roll of aluminum foil.

At The Picnic:-

An hour before meal-time assemble the meals individually on 10 or 12 inch squares of aluminum foil. Cut peeled potatoes in two or four pieces lengthwise. Center them on the foil and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Top with a thick slice of onion. Add a large pat of made of prepared hamburger, then another then another slice of onion.
Season again, add several pieces of corn on the cob or small carrots.

Then lift opposite sides of the foil and fold edges together in the manner used for wrapping parcels
in the drug store.

After making sure each parcel is ash-proof drop it into the coals of the fire. After 20 minutes, turn the parcels over and cook another 20 minutes. Take them out of the coals and allow to cool for a few minutes. Brush off the ashes and place one at each place on the picnic table.

The foil serves as plates for the meal. The only utensils needed will be a fork and cup for each person. Serve with tossed green salad, buttered rolls, pickles, beverage and dessert.

Fires For Outdoor Cooking:-

Do be careful. Every year some careless camper seems to leave a fire that was not completely extinguished — resulting in much damage. Observe the rules and regulations regarding the camping site. One can not be too careful in preventing fire.

This department has a bulletin
on "Outdoor Cookery" which may be had for the asking. It includes many helpful hints for the camper along with tempting recipes for outdoor cooking. Write to me for a copy.

WEDDINGS

McARTHUR — BLAKEMORE

Knox United Church was the scene of a recent wedding when Miss Jacinth Winifred Blakemore,
daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.
Blakemore of Cheshire, Eng., was united in marriage with Mr. William Donald McArthur, son of Mr.
and Mrs. Roy McArthur, Didsbury.

Rev. J. Bainbridge, a former Didsbury minister, officiated. The bride looked charming in a white full length gown of lace and tulle, with a finger-tip veil held in place with a lace and satin headpiece. She carried a white prayer book, decorated with an orchid, and was given in marriage by Miss Marguerite McArthur, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaids, wearing ballet length gowns of pink and blue organza, with matching head dresses, and carrying bouquets of deep red roses.

Mr. Dorn Gillrie was best man, while Mr. Arnold McArthur and Bruce Walton, cousins of the groom, ushered. Mrs. Carlton Lee-son presided at the organ.

The bride's mother, Mrs. W.
Blakemore, flew from England to be present at her daughter's wedding. Her dress was a pale blue two-piece suit of silk brocade, with vanilla accessories. The groom's mother chose a blue lace dress with champagne accessories.

A reception followed in the United Church hall, where 50 guests
sat down to the wedding breakfast.
Rev. Bainbridge gave the toast to the bride, responded to by the groom. Mr. Dorn Gillrie read telegrams from England and Uranium City.

Out-of-town guests were
from Edmonton, Red Deer, Innis-fail, Huxley and Calgary.

NOTES

Agricultural

Service Board

TOAD FLAX: We are still battling with this very persistent weed. We have talked about it so often that I think most people know what it is. Black summer-fallow throughout an entire season usually kills out toad flax. It requires the same treatment culturally to eradicate as quack grass.

However, toad flax likes to grow
on roadsides, ditch banks, gravel pits, pasture fields, etc., where one can't get at it with a chemical.
There are several new chemicals
that are now recommended for use on this weed. Weedazol is being used as a wet treatment. The powder is mixed with water and sprayed on the plants. This is the first year for this material so we can't tell yet just how good it is.

We have used D-B granular for two years and we find it very good.
It is pelleted and we apply it at 4 to 5 pounds per 100 square feet in dry form. This material is available from the Municipal Office in 50 pound bags at a cost of $8.00 each.

If you have toad flax by all means
do something about eradicating it.
The very least anyone can do is to keep the plants cut down so that seed setting is prevented. We are at present making every effort to treat the patches on the roadsides.
We were held up on this job for several weeks due to shortage of material, but now have a good supply on hand.

WESTCOTT JUNIOR W.I.

HOLD REGULAR MEETING

The August meeting of the Westcott Junior W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. T. Topping, with 12 members and one visitor present.

Roll call was answered by each member giving two articles for the fish pond and bazaar to be held in the fall.

It was decided that members
would clean the school on Friday, August 29th. After a short business meeting the ladies worked on articles for the bazaar.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Walsh and members are reminded to bring two more articles for the fish pond.

August 1st, 1958. Dependents of eligible members are also covered. For details on how the Alberta Wheat Pool Accident Insurance plan may be extended to non-family farm workers, see your Alberta Wheat Pool agent.

Where Is Coverage

Alberta Wheat Pool Accident Insurance not only covers you on every task around the farm. It goes further, covering you and your family at work and at play.

How Much Coverage

Alberta Wheat Pool Accident Insurance benefits include—

For loss of life—as much as $1,000.00.

For loss of sight or limbs—as much as $1,000.00.

For medical expenses—as much as $500.00.

Aware of the high rate of farm accidents and the heavy cost to members, your Alberta Wheat

Pool takes pride in offering this accident insurance coverage at no cost. For complete details on this insurance plan, your Alberta Wheat Pool agent invites you to discuss it with your agent soon.

This is a further step in Alberta Wheat Pool's endeavour to bring maximum service to its

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Elwood Casebeer entertained her immediate neighbors on Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 6th.

Ricky Lane spent two weeks vacationing at Cremona. His folks were out for the weekend and helped him celebrate his birthday at a Wiener roast. Lee Burkholder, Donna and Bernice McElin, Deryl Mork, Egin, Lila Jean and Vernon Young, Carol and Allan George, Ada, Marie and Marion Love, also helped Ricky celebrate.

Mr. Bob Barclay was fortunate in that the burns he received were not serious in the accident which occurred in Calgary last week. Mr. Barclay is back at work.

Mr. C. Wilson also celebrated his birthday last Sunday at his home west of Cremona. Visitors for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. G. Mork of Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. J. Betts and family, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilson and family, Mr. A. Hoeg and Allan and Mr. and Mrs. R. Mork and Deryl.

A wedding dance for Mr. and Mrs. W. Eby in the local hall was well attended last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hewitt and family are visiting the latter's family in Saskatchewan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Raitray and Grant were visitors at the Red Deer fair last weekend.

A hearty thanks is extended to the neighbors who helped pour cement at R. Mork's last Friday. Their assistance was sincerely appreciated.

What They Say . .*THE PINCHER CREEK ECHO says the increase in taxes in the past few years is "fantastic" and "unbearable". As a people we are paying out in annual taxation about five times as much as we are putting away in personal savings — and the gap is steadily widening. Vast sums of money which might otherwise be productively employed in generating future wealth are instead being collected and re-distributed (less the cost of administration) by governments on a scale unimaginable a few years ago.Regarding education in Alberta, THE MACLEOD GAZETTE notes . . . instances are reported whereby students who have passed through Grade XII have been turned down on application to universities because they were lacking in knowledge of what may be termed elementary subjects. Business colleges have been known to grant diplomas to students who on taking jobs in offices did not know how to spell correctly or put together a letter in good form. If the Cameron Commission's report will point up the weaknesses in our educational system, and recommend reforms, then its time will not have been spent in vain.THE DRUMHELLER MAIL points out . . . In 1957 a day was set apart as the first National Civil Defence Day. This year of 1958 is to mark a similar date, namely, Friday, September 19th. The purpose of the day thus defined is to emphasize the need for Civil Defence and to demonstrate some of the avenues of progress that have been opened to date. Civil defence is a problem to be tackled by every municipality and community however large or small. It is one of the new duties of every citizen of Canada. This means you.Squirrel Cage . .*POOR SCREEN

A drunk, traveling aboard an ocean liner headed for Europe, staggered from the deck to the stateroom, sat down and peered through a porthole the entire afternoon.

Finally he got up, turned his back, and mumbled: "What a lousy television show."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Assurance of God's readiness to supply all good to man will be emphasized at Christian Science Services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul."

The ever-availability of divine goodness is set forth in the Scriptural readings, including this one from Luke (12:32): "Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy declares (60:29): "Soul has infinite resources with which to bless mankind, and happiness would be more readily attained and would be more secure in our keeping, if sought in Soul."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (70:4): "Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee; and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified."

LIGHT YOUR WAY . .*... WITH BIBLE STUDY

Picture an archer, aiming his arrow at the target. He draws the cord taut, let's go, zip! The arrow flies through the air. It misses. "Sin," the Greeks would say. "Missed the mark."

The target God has set up for us is Perfection. "Ye shall be perfect!" He says, and again He says: "Ye shall be holy!" Anything less than this is "sin" — missing the mark.

Someone suggested sometime ago, "sin". And as you say it, you can hear the hiss of the serpent.

As we look at ourselves, and as the previous Bible studies have illustrated, we all must come to the conclusion that we have missed this mark. God Himself states this: "There is not a just man on earth that doeth good and sinneth not."

If you were the archer and shot ten arrows but missed the mark with one, you would still not have a perfect score. Or suppose that you were being hauled out of a quarry by means of a chain, and, as you dangled 50 feet above the ground, one link broke. Mind you, only ONE link. You know very well what would happen. The other good links could not sustain you in the air.

This also God tells us when He says: "Whoever shall keep the whole Law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all."

How then can we be saved from this verdict that falls over us all?

Let us think of this example. A father says to his son: "Saw and chop the wood today. If you don't, I'll punish you when I get home tonight." The boy tries, but he is too weak. Alone comes his elder brother and says: "Step aside, I'll do it for you." And He does. So our Heavenly Father has given us commands. We can not keep them. We deserve punishment. But our elder brother, Jesus Christ, comes along. Of Him Scripture says: "Behold the Lamb of God which taketh away the sin of the world." He kept the Law for us. He took our sin. That is why we need Him. Will you receive Him, now?
